AND WHEREAS, Vault desires to contract with Affiliate to increase Vault's business through Affiliate's promotion of Vault's landing pages and promotional codes.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual agreements and covenants herein contained, the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

Definitions:

- A. Affiliate Customer: means a person who becomes a customer of a Brand directly through a Vault tracking link or promotional code which the Affiliate uses to promote the Brand.
- B. Affiliate Payment: means an amount equal to the stated amount in the Rate Guide.
- C. Brand: means any third-party brand, advertiser, merchant, operator, platform, application, website, network, or other commercial partner whose products or services Vault enables, authorizes, or facilitates Affiliate to promote, including sportsbook, casino, Daily Fantasy Sports, prediction market, ticketing, streaming, finance, and other consumer or business brands.
- D. Disclosing Party: means the party providing confidential information to the other party.
- E. Maximum Affiliate CPA: means the maximum amount of money that may be paid to Affiliate in respect of the acquisition of an Affiliate Customer or other qualifying action, as reflected in the Rate Guide.
- F. Rate Guide: has the meaning ascribed to it in section 2c of this Agreement.
- G. Receiving Party: means the party obtaining confidential information from the disclosing party.
- H. Term: means the duration of this Agreement, including any renewal periods.

1. Services

- a. Vault agrees to hire Affiliate as an independent contractor to promote Brands to potential customers, including but not limited to, driving traffic to the Brands listed in the Rate Guide through the use of Vault's promotion codes and affiliate links.
- b. The Rate Guide will have the applicable jurisdictions for the respective Brands.
- c. Affiliate agrees to actively promote Brand products and services to potential customers in accordance with this Agreement.
- d. Affiliate's promotion of Brand products and services shall only be through the methods and jurisdictions specified by Vault, including, but not limited to, display advertisements, text links, email marketing, and social media promotions.

2. Compensation

- a. Vault shall pay to the Affiliate an amount equal to the Affiliate Payment via the agreed-upon payment method within fifteen (15) days after Vault receives the corresponding payment from the relevant Brand(s). Note that the typical time frame for receiving Affiliate Payments is thirty (30) days after the end of the applicable month. Vault shall not be liable for any delay in payment to the Affiliate that arises from delayed payments by the Brands.

- b. In the event that Vault, in its sole, absolute and unfettered discretion, suspects that any revenue received was not from an actual customer or otherwise constitutes a transaction that may be reversed due to fraud, then Vault may delay payment of the Affiliate Payment for up to sixty (60) days while it investigates and verifies the transaction. In the event that Vault determines, in its sole, absolute and unfettered discretion, that a transaction has or will be reversed due to fraud, and the transaction is either actually reversed or if Vault returns the money, Vault shall not be obligated to pay the Affiliate Payment in respect of such transaction.
- c. The Parties hereby agree to utilize a Rate Guide, which shall be incorporated by reference into this Agreement, to establish and update the Affiliate Payment and the Maximum Affiliate CPA. The Rate Guide will be maintained by Vault and will be accessible to Affiliate for review at all times. Any updates or modifications to the Affiliate Payment and the Maximum Affiliate CPA rates in the Rate Guide will be communicated to Affiliate, and such updates will be deemed effective upon receipt of the written notification. Any updates to the Rate Guide as shown on the Affiliate dashboard will constitute written notification to Affiliate. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Rate Guide will serve as the authoritative source for determining the Affiliate Payment and the Maximum Affiliate CPA, and no signatures or formal amendments to this Agreement will be required to effect changes to the Affiliate Payment or the Maximum Affiliate CPA rates as set forth in the Rate Guide.
- d. Vault shall provide Affiliate with only so much access to its books, records, and other information as reasonably necessary for Affiliate to confirm the Affiliate Payment in respect of the Affiliate Customers.
- e. Each of the parties shall promptly respond to inquiries by the other regarding the Affiliate Payment, the Maximum Affiliate CPA, the Affiliate Payment, and the Rate Guide.
- f. In the event of termination of this Agreement, Vault shall pay any outstanding Affiliate Payment to Affiliate within sixty (60) days following the date of termination.
- g. Following the termination of this Agreement, Affiliate shall not receive any compensation for any individual who, during the term of this Agreement, would have qualified as an Affiliate Customer, but who has signed up with a Brand using a Vault link or promo code following the termination of this Agreement.

3. Term

- a. The Term of this Agreement shall be for one (1) year from the date of this Agreement and shall automatically renew for a(n) additional period(s) of one (1) year, unless either party notifies the other in writing at least ninety (90) days before the expiry of the Term of its desire to terminate this Agreement.
- b. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon written notice if:
 - i. A party hereto breaches this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within fifteen (15) days after receipt of written notice identifying the breach;

- ii. A party hereto is found to be in violation of any applicable federal and/or state-level wagering, gambling, gaming, lottery, or betting regulation;
 - iii. A party hereto or any of its directors, officers or managers is convicted of a felony or is found guilty of engaging in any illegal practices; and
 - iv. A party acts in a manner that may damage the reputation of the other party.
Notwithstanding the foregoing, Vault shall have the absolute and unfettered discretion to terminate this Agreement without cause upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Affiliate.
- c. Vault shall also have the absolute and unfettered discretion to terminate this Agreement in the event Vault becomes aware that Affiliate is performing the services enumerated in Section 1 herein in jurisdictions that require Affiliate to obtain a license to perform such services and that Affiliate does not have such license.
- d. Upon termination of this Agreement in accordance with section 3(b), in addition to termination of the Agreement, the non-breaching party may also pursue any remedies it has pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise.

4. Non-circumvention

- a. During the term of this Agreement and for a six (6) month period following the termination of this Agreement, Affiliate shall not enter into any agreement, arrangement, or engagement, whether formal or informal, with any Brand that Vault has enabled Affiliate to promote or for which Vault has facilitated a promotional opportunity for Affiliate.
- b. During the term of this Agreement and for a six (6) month period following the termination of this Agreement, Affiliate shall not use, disclose, reference, or rely upon any rates, pricing, payout terms, commission terms, conversion data, performance data, or other commercial information provided by Vault to solicit, negotiate, obtain, or attempt to obtain better rates or terms from any Brand or other third party, regardless of whether Vault enabled Affiliate to promote such Brand or facilitated a promotional opportunity for Affiliate with such Brand. In addition to any and all remedies available at law or in equity, Affiliate shall pay Vault an additional commission equal to the amount Vault would have earned had Affiliate not violated this Section 4.

5. Confidentiality

- a. Except as and to the extent required by law, each party will keep confidential any Confidential Information obtained from the other party in connection with this Agreement and shall employ commercially reasonable measures to safeguard the confidentiality of Confidential Information. Such measures shall be no less than the measures the party uses to protect the confidentiality of its own Confidential Information.
- b. Neither party shall make any public announcement with respect to any aspect of this Agreement or their relationship without the prior written approval of the other party.

- c. Upon a written request from the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party will either return to the Disclosing Party or destroy (at the Receiving Party's choice) all Confidential Information obtained by the Receiving Party from the Disclosing Party in connection with this Agreement and shall destroy all written materials, memoranda, notes, and other writings prepared which are based upon or otherwise reflect the information or the relevant portions thereof. Any information not returned or destroyed, including, without limitation, any oral information, shall remain subject to the confidentiality and limited use obligations of this Agreement.
- d. The confidentiality and limited use provisions of this Agreement shall not apply to any Confidential Information which:
 - i. was already in the lawful possession of the Receiving Party at the time of such disclosure unless such possession arose as a result of a breach of confidence;
 - ii. is or comes into the public domain other than as a result of the breach of this Agreement;
 - iii. is obtained by the Receiving Party from a bona fide third party having no apparent restraint on its free right of disposal of such information;or
 - iv. is or has already been independently generated by the Receiving Party as evidenced by documentary records.

6. Representations and Warranties. In order to induce each other to enter into this Agreement and to carry out the relationship contemplated hereunder, each of Affiliate and Vault hereby represent and warrant to the other that:

- a. Organization in Good Standing – It is duly organized and validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its formation;
- b. Due Authorization, etc. - It has all necessary power, capacity, and authority (corporate and otherwise) to enter into this Agreement and to carry out its obligations hereunder. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereunder have been duly authorized by all necessary action on its part; and
- c. Enforceability of Obligation - This Agreement is a valid and binding obligation enforceable against it in accordance with the terms hereof. Vault makes no representation that the operation of its websites, services or partners will be uninterrupted or error-free and will not be liable for the consequences of any interruptions or errors. Affiliate is solely responsible for determining whether Affiliate must obtain or maintain any license, registration, approval, permit or other authorization to perform the services in any jurisdiction.
- d. Services not to be Performed in Certain Jurisdictions – Affiliate acknowledges that certain jurisdictions require a license in order to conduct the services enumerated in Section 1 herein. Affiliate shall not conduct any services contained in this Agreement in any jurisdiction that requires a license which Vault does not possess to perform such services. Failure to adhere to this subsection 6(d) shall be considered a material breach of this Agreement.

7. Remedies Upon Breach; Liability.

- a. Upon the occurrence of a breach hereunder, after the non-breaching party has provided the breaching party with written notice of such breach and a period of fifteen (15) days after such notice to cure such breach, the non-breaching party may pursue all remedies available pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise. The breaching party shall pay to the non-breaching party all expenses incurred, including, but not limited to, the non-breaching party's attorneys' fees and costs (whether or not litigation is commenced, at trial and all appellate levels, and in bankruptcy), all of which, including any amount due pursuant to this Agreement, shall bear interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum from the date incurred until the date paid.
- b. Except with respect to the parties' liability for indemnification of third parties, liability for breach of confidentiality, or liability for infringement or misappropriation of intellectual property, in no event will either party be liable to the other for any consequential, incidental, indirect, exemplary, special, or punitive damages whatsoever (including damages for loss of use, revenue or profit, business interruption, and loss of information), whether arising out of breach of contract, tort (including negligence), or otherwise, regardless of whether such damage was foreseeable and whether or not such party has been advised of the possibility of such damages. Nothing in this clause shall exclude or limit either party's liability for death or personal injury resulting from such party's gross negligence or for fraud, fraudulent misstatement, or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- c. Vault's aggregate liability in respect of any loss or damage suffered by Affiliate and arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, whether in contract, tort (including negligence) or for breach of statutory duty or in any other way, shall not exceed the total Affiliate Payment paid or payable to Affiliate under this Agreement.
- d. Affiliate's aggregate liability in respect of any loss or damage suffered by Vault and arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, whether in contract, tort (including negligence) or for breach of statutory duty or in any other way, shall not exceed the total Vault Payment earned under this Agreement.

8. General

- a. Expenses - All costs and expenses (including, without limitation, the fees and disbursements of legal counsel) incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses.
- b. Entire Agreement - This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, of the parties and there are no warranties, representations or other agreements between the parties in connection with the subject matter hereof except as specifically set forth herein. No supplement, modification or waiver or termination of this Agreement shall be deemed or shall constitute a waiver of any other provision (whether or not similar) nor shall such waiver constitute a continuing waiver unless otherwise expressly provided. Each of the parties hereto declare that they participated in the drafting of this Agreement and that, accordingly, this Agreement shall not be construed more strongly against any party hereto because it drafted this Agreement. For purposes of this section 8(b), the Rate Guide shall be considered a part of this Agreement.

- c. Applicable Law, Dispute Resolution, Waiver of Jury Trial – This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with, the laws of the state of Delaware and the federal laws of the United States of America applicable therein. Each of the parties hereto expressly submit themselves to, and agree that all actions arising out of or related to this Agreement shall:
- i. first be mediated by a mediator mutually agreed upon by the parties, which mediation shall occur within thirty (30) days of any party's request for mediation; and
 - ii. in the event the parties hereto are unable to resolve their dispute at mediation, then their dispute shall be submitted to a single third-party arbiter in accordance with the American Arbitration Association's Commercial Arbitration Rules (including the selection of the arbitrator). Each of the parties hereto expressly waive any right they may have to a trial by jury in any action to enforce this Agreement, arising out of or related to this Agreement or concerning the subject matter of this Agreement or the relationship of the parties hereto.
 - iii. The arbitration shall be conducted in the English language by a single independent and neutral arbitrator. For any hearing conducted in person as part of the arbitration, you agree that:
 1. Any in-person arbitration hearing will be conducted in Travis County, Texas, unless the parties agree otherwise in writing.
 2. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding. Judgment on the arbitral award may be entered, if applicable, in any court of competent jurisdiction.
- d. Severability - If any provision of this Agreement is held or decided to be, or is in fact, invalid, inoperative, or unenforceable, such circumstance shall not render any other provision or provisions herein invalid, inoperative, or unenforceable. Instead, this Agreement shall be reformed and construed as if the invalid, inoperative, or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein.
- e. Notices – All notices required or permitted under this Agreement or any other communications between the parties shall be in writing and sent by email to the email addresses set forth below. If a party provides a physical notice address, notices may also be sent by hand-delivery, nationally recognized overnight delivery service, or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to such physical notice address:

If to Affiliate: kenny@hyder.me

Phone: +1 (619) 850-7217

If to Vault: caleb@vaultnetwork.io or such other email address or physical address as the parties may direct by notice given in accordance herewith. All notices shall be deemed given on the date sent if sent by email without bounceback, the date received if hand-delivered or sent by overnight delivery, or the date noted on the return receipt or delivery receipt as the date when delivery was refused.

- f. Remedies - Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to or shall be construed to limit the remedies which any party hereto may have against the other parties hereto in the event of a default by such party with respect to their obligations hereunder or in the event of a breach by such party of any representation, warranty or agreement made in or pursuant to this Agreement, it being intended that any and all remedies shall be cumulative and non-exclusive.
- g. Successors; Non-assignment - This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the successors and heirs of the parties hereto. Neither party shall assign this Agreement or any rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party.
- h. Counterparts - This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original, and all counterparts taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.
- i. Intellectual Property – Affiliate acknowledges and agrees that Vault retains all rights, title and interest in and to its products and services, including any associated intellectual property. Affiliate shall not use Vault’s trademarks, service marks, or copyrighted material except in connection with its services rendered pursuant to this Agreement.
- j. Relationship of the Parties – Vault and Affiliate are independent contractors, and nothing in this Agreement creates any agency, joint venture, partnership, or other form of joint enterprise, employment, or fiduciary relationship between the parties. Affiliate is an independent contractor pursuant to this Agreement. Neither Vault nor Affiliate has any express or implied right or authority to assume or create any obligations on behalf or in the name of the other party or to bind the other party to any contract, agreement, or undertaking with any third party. For the avoidance of doubt, any Sub-Affiliate that is subject to this Agreement shall also be treated as an independent contractor. Nothing in this agreement creates any agency, joint venture, partnership, or other form of joint enterprise, employment, or fiduciary relationship between Vault and any Sub-Affiliate.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed this Agreement as of the day and year written above.
